

Being Uprooted.

Deuteronomy 28:63

From a Bible perspective, being uprooted describes a person, nation, or life that has been removed from stability, blessing, or relationship with God. It is the opposite of being rooted in Him, which brings life and strength.

Here are key Bible truths about being uprooted.

I. They wicked are uprooted because they are not rooted in God.

Psalm 1:3-4

A) A person rooted in God is stable and fruitful. Proverbs 2:21

B) The ungodly are unstable and easily removed. Proverbs 2:22

To be uprooted is a result of separation from righteousness.
