

2024-2025 ANNUAL

Stand Fast

Stand fast
therefore in the liberty where with Christ hath made us free and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.
Galatians 5:1

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBERS

In the Constitution of the Bibb Baptist Association it states that Executive Committee members consist of; the pastor (or associate pastor) from each member church, associational officers, heads of auxiliaries (such as WMU) of the association and one lay representative from each member church in the association. The lay representative shall be elected by each member church before the meeting of the association each year and reported on the church letter to the association. In the event a church is without a pastor, then the chairman of deacons shall be eligible to fill the pastor's vacancy on the Executive Committee until the church calls their new pastor. In the event there is a vacancy in either the pastor's or lay representative's position, the member must provide a letter to the associational office stating the name, address and telephone number of the person designated to fill the vacancy.

CONSTITUTION OF THE BIBB BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE ONE: NAME: This association shall be known as the Bibb Baptist Association.

ARTICLE TWO: PURPOSE: The purpose of this association shall be to promote Christian fellowship and cooperation among the churches affiliated with the association; to uphold the doctrines and principles of our Baptist faith and to encourage the churches to be loyal to and practice these doctrines and principles; to promote the preaching and teaching of God's Word; the enlisting and training of all Christians for service; to promote missions, benevolence, stewardship, Christian education, and the winning of all men to Christ to the ends of the earth; cooperate with the Alabama Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention in a world mission program.

ARTICLE THREE: MEMBERSHIP:

SECTION 1: This association shall be composed of messengers from the member churches duly represented by letters of recommendation which shall give the names of the messengers with statistics and their work since the last session, which may be read and minuted.

SECTION 2: Every church shall be entitled to three messengers and one for every twenty-five, or major fraction thereof, above its first fifty members, not to exceed ten messengers from any one church. Pastors of churches in the association, associational officers and heads of departments shall also be members of the body.

SECTION 3: Churches desiring to affiliate with this association shall present a written formal request for admission to the Executive Committee a minimum of thirty days prior to the annual meeting in October. Upon approval of the Executive Committee, the request will be referred to the Missions Development Committee and the Associational Credential Committee for their careful investigation during the watchcare period (a minimum of 12 months). During this watchcare period the applying church shall demonstrate their understanding of "The Baptist Faith and Message" and prove their willingness to cooperate by actively participating in and supporting the programs of the association and the Cooperative Program for the period while under watchcare. While the church is under watchcare it will cooperate with the sponsoring church in developing its organizational structure and operating guidelines. As necessary and feasible the Associational Credentials Committee will lend assistance to help the church become a legally recognized entity. At the next annual meeting (unless otherwise approved by the body at the annual meeting) based upon favorable reports from the sponsoring church, the Associational Credentials Committee, and the closest cooperating associational affiliated Southern Baptist Church to the applying church and upon receiving a favorable two-thirds (2/3) vote of the messengers present, the applying church will be accorded full associational privileges.

SECTION 4: This association holds no authority over any church nor right to interfere with its internal concerns, but it does have the authority to exclude from its fellowship any church that may violate or depart from the principles of the association which indicates a departure from the common bond of "Like Faith and Order" and or fail to display a spirit of cooperation and support of the total associational missions program. Each affiliated church (to include churches under watchcare) shall present a properly completed Uniform Church Letter to the associational designated individual not later than ten (10) working days prior to the first session of the annual fall meeting. Failure to report such communication after contact by the Moderator and the Associational Director of Missions shall be referred to the Associational Credentials Committee for appropriate action. Any church failing for three consecutive years to make the annual report to the association and/or failing to demonstrate a cooperative and supportive attitude for the total associational missions program shall be considered as having withdrawn from the association and shall be recommended for deletion from the roll of affiliated associational churches. After presentation of pertinent data to the body during the annual meeting, and upon receipt of a majority vote favoring withdrawal of membership, the church shall be deleted from the roll of affiliated association churches.

SECTION 5: All visiting members of Southern Baptist Churches shall be entitled to be seated but not to vote.

ARTICLE FOUR: ARTICLES OF FAITH: The Articles of Faith adopted by the Bibb Baptist Association are the Southern Baptist Convention Article of Faith and may be printed in the Associational Minutes.

ARTICLE FIVE: OFFICERS:

SECTION 1: The officers of this association shall be the General Officers, Heads of Departments and such other special officers as the association may deem to be necessary.

SECTION 2: GENERAL OFFICERS:

A. MODERATOR: The Moderator shall call to order and preside over the meetings of the association and the executive committee and direct the affairs of the association in an orderly manner and Christian spirit.

B. VICE-MODERATOR: The Vice-Moderator shall preside in the absence of the Moderator or at the request of the Moderator.

C. CLERK: The Clerk shall keep an accurate record of all the proceedings of the association and executive committee, supervise the printing and distribution of the minutes, and attend such others work as belongs to that office.

D. TREASURER: The Treasurer shall receive all funds of, and for the association, not otherwise designated; shall disburse all funds in accordance with the adopted associational budget or the specific instructions of the association, and upon receipt of a bill or voucher properly authorized. He shall keep accurate records of all monies received, with sources and designations of the same. He shall make mimeographed reports to the regular meetings of the executive committee and annual meeting of the association and have the same approved. The Executive Committee shall have the treasurer's reports audited at the close of the fiscal year, and report the same to the annual association for approval.

E. HISTORIAN: The Historian shall write in orderly form the events of the association beginning with its organization. He shall make a record of current events each year and read his annual chapter to the association for adoption.

F. TRUSTEES: The Trustees shall consist of three persons presented by the nominating committee and elected by the association. They shall be elected for an indefinite period of time and affirmed annually in the fall associational meeting. Once elected they shall serve for as long as they are able or until they are replaced. The trustees shall be the agents, as required by law, to act for the association in matters duly appointed by the association and/or Executive Committee. They sign all deeds of conveyance, execute all notes, bonds, or mortgages, and intervene in all suits, by authority of the association. The trustees shall meet as often as needed to perform their work, and shall keep a written record of their actions. A copy of this written record will be placed on file in the Association Office. The trustees shall report, when necessary, to the Association and to the Executive Committee.

Section 3: DEPARTMENTAL HEADS:

A. SUNDAY SCHOOL DIRECTOR: His duties are to promote Sunday School work in the association; to keep his associational officers working and his programs well planned; to promote the regular meetings and to secure complete reports. He would lead the churches to develop Standard Sunday Schools and should seek to organize a Sunday School in any church without one. In collaboration with the other officers, he will plan associational programs of training for all Sunday School workers, lead in enlargement for all schools, promote Vacation Bible School work, and encourage the establishment of mission Sunday Schools where they are needed. He would lead the churches to make effective use of the Weekly Officers and Teachers Meeting and Six Point Record System.

B. DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING DIRECTOR: His duties are to promote the associational program of Discipleship Training work; to direct all associational Discipleship Training officers in their functions; to lead every church in the association to have Discipleship Training; to assist the churches in having better Discipleship Training and to cooperate with the State Discipleship Training leadership in all programs of work and will secure and make complete reports.

C. W.M.U. PRESIDENT: The association, along with the Women's Missionary Union organization, should work out a procedure for electing the president of the Associational Woman's Missionary Union in a way to give her status as an ex-officio member of the Associational Executive Committee.

D. BROTHERHOOD PRESIDENT: His duties are to study the whole program of the association and lead the men to support it; to make reports on Brotherhood work; to encourage men to attend all meetings of the association and to help all Associational Brotherhood officers in the effective promotion of Brotherhood work in all churches. He will be cooperative with the Moderator and all the associational organizations in coordinating and promoting associational and denominational projects.

E. MUSIC DIRECTOR: He shall have charge of the music for the associational meetings and serve as chairman of the Associational Music Committee; he shall attempt to improve the type and grade of music in the churches; conduct quarterly meetings of the music committee; teach schools of music in the churches and promote the associational music activities.

F. YOUTH RALLY PRESIDENT: He shall promote an Associational Youth Rally; prepare programs, project a calendar of activities for the coming church year; preside at the meeting of the Youth Rally and the Youth Committee.

Section 4: OTHER OFFICERS:

A. ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONARY: The Executive Committee shall be empowered to employ an Associational Missionary who shall be approved at the next annual session and shall hold office so long as mutually agreeable. He shall maintain an associational office and shall, under the direction of the executive committee, promote the missionary, benevolent and educational work of the association. He shall be an ex-officio member of all boards and committees with the power to make recommendations and to enter into discussions of all matters but without the power to vote in committees except the Executive Committee. He shall be allowed two weeks vacation with pay and two weeks work outside the association in denominational activities (revivals, stewardship campaigns, schools of missions, etc.) not including attendance at assemblies, workshops, clinics, conferences or conventions. The vacation and outside work shall not be taken consecutively.

Section 5: ELECTION OF OFFICERS:

A. General Officers and Departmental Heads shall be nominated annually previous to the annual meeting of the association by the Nominating Committee and the Executive Committee, subject to approval of the association at the Annual Meeting. The floor of the Annual Meeting shall be opened for additional nominations.

B. Other associational officers shall be employed by the Executive Committee, subject to approval of the association at the Annual Meeting. The floor of the Annual Meeting shall be opened for additional nominations.

Section 6: AUTHORITY: The association is an autonomous body and therefore reserves the right to determine its own policies and direct its own business; it may refuse to seat messengers who are not in fellowship or doctrinal agreement with the body, or whose churches are not. However, this body, or the executive committee shall never exercise any authority over, or give direction to, any church or churches which are affiliated with it or which may have been affiliated with it; but the association will stand ready to lend any assistance or counsel to any church making request for such help.

Section 7: ORGANIZATIONS: This body shall encourage and promote such associational organizations as Sunday School, Discipleship Training, W.M.U., Brotherhood, Music and other organizations which are in keeping with the purpose of the association, with their full staffs of officers and programs necessary for the promotion of the work. The chief officers of each organization shall be elected or approved by the association and shall function as an officer of the association.

ARTICLE SIX: COMMITTEES:

Section 1: EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: The executive committee of the association shall be composed of the following members; the pastor (or associate pastor) from each member church, associational officers, heads of auxiliaries of the association and one lay representative from each member church in the association, which said lay representative shall be elected by each church before the meeting of the association each year and reported on the church letter to the association. In the event a church is without a pastor, then the chairman of deacons shall be eligible to fill the pastor's vacancy on the executive committee until the church calls their new pastor. In the event there is a vacancy in either the pastor's or lay representative's position, the member church must provide a letter to the associational office stating the name, address and telephone number of the person designated to fill the vacancy. The duties of the executive committee shall be to aid and advise the churches, to carry on all necessary business of the association between the annual sessions of the association and to recommend the members of the standing committees to the association for the ensuing year. Those members of the executive committee present after due notification, provided there shall be seven or more, shall constitute a quorum for transacting the business of the committee. All action taken by the executive committee shall be reported to the association in annual session for consideration and approval.

Section 2: MEETINGS: The association shall meet annually at such time and place as it may designate. The executive committee may call extra meetings of the association if necessary, or change the time and place of the stated meeting of the association when it feels it is inexpedient at the time and place appointed. The executive committee shall hold 12 meetings per year, monthly, at such a time as designated by the committee and such additional meetings as it may feel to be necessary to the proper conduct of business of the association.

Section 3: An Amendment to the Article Section is recommended by a committee that the association shall have the following standing committees named by the Moderator and Executive Committee on or before the last meeting of the executive committee preceding the annual meeting of the association and recommended for election at the business session of the first day of the association, to serve until the close of the next Annual Session of the Associational Meeting.

A. PROGRAM COMMITTEE: This committee shall arrange and promote the program of the annual meeting of the association including place of meeting, time of meeting, and speaker and alternate for doctrinal, missionary and youth sermons.

B. NOMINATING COMMITTEE: This committee shall nominate for presentation to the annual meeting of the association the following: Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk, Treasurer, Historian and Departmental Heads and shall fill all vacancies as they may occur between annual sessions.

C. CREDENTIAL COMMITTEE: It shall be the duty of this committee to receive the petitionary letters from any church seeking fellowship with the association. At the first session or subsequent sessions of the annual meeting they shall make recommendations concerning same for action. They shall also consider any questions of the fellowship of messengers from any church and make such recommendations as may be deemed advisable to any session of the annual meeting of the association, or called session thereof.

D. BUDGET COMMITTEE: This committee shall give general supervision to the entire associational finance program; shall prepare and recommend an annual budget to the executive committee of the association for presentation and approval by the annual meeting and shall encourage the churches to make regular and liberal contributions to the associational work.

Section 4: SPECIAL COMMITTEES: The special committees of the association may consist of the following: Christian Life, American Bible Society, Baptist Student Union, Brotherhood, Children's Home, Christian Education, Church Music, Cooperative Program, Denominational Literature, Evangelism, Memorial, Missions, Annuity Board, Baptist Foundation, Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Auditing, W.M.U., Youth Rally and Resolutions and such other committees as may be deemed to be needed, to be nominated as in Section 3. The duties of these committees shall be to present to the annual session of the association the reports of their respective organizations.

ARTICLE SEVEN: AMENDMENTS: This constitution may be amended at any regular annual session of the association by a two-thirds majority of the messengers present, provided notice of such change has been given at the previous annual meeting and provided it is read in the first session of the annual meeting and voted on before the last session.
