The Road Behind

The road has been hot for the last month—if you have been riding, you know—and we have been busy on the road sharing the Gospel in many places. Stay hydrated! God has allowed us to continue sharing the Good News of the Gospel during this hot weather, and I am so thankful for all of our Faith Riders who continue their efforts to serve and support others as God leads. Prayers continue for lives to be changed for all eternity!

The Road Under Us

The road under us is really busy, but now's not the time to let up on the throttle! We have many opportunities to serve and support the mission now with Smoky Mountain Bike Week, Bikes, Blues, and BBQ, and the Barber Vintage Festival, just to name a few, and I am sure there are many local events as well! You can visit our website at faithriders.com and view most of the opportunities to be involved in mission work through F.A.I.T.H. Riders. Remember: "Pray, Support, Serve."

The Road Ahead

As the weather gets cooler, the road seems smoother, so come on and let's keep busy for the Lord! Looking ahead and planning for our mission next year, now is the time to make some preparations for our mission planning and financial needs. We have been so blessed, and God has given the ministry the necessary resources to continue our mission work going forward. God is ahead of us (as always), and the ministry has received a great donation of a motorcycle for next year's missions! What a blessing this is!

All glory to God!

So keep "Praying, Supporting, Serving" as God leads this ministry in the years ahead!

Phillip Cook, National Director

Fuel for the Road Truth to Power Your Journey

Choosing What Matters Most

Luke 10:40

I love this time of the year. For many, it's time to get away, maybe go to the mountains and look at the beautiful leaves changing colors. For F.A.I.T.H. Riders, it is a very busy time for evangelism, we have so many outreach events that are happening all around us.

Please don't get so busy sharing with others that you neglect your own spiritual well-being. Years ago we developed a ball field at a church that I was pastoring. At the beginning everything looked perfect. The trees were cleared and the sod was laid. But after several months suddenly, right in the middle of that ball field, a huge hole developed. The guy doing the work buried all the trees instead of hauling them off, and after a while rottenness on the inside was obvious. It was a slow process that ended up becoming an unsafe area. At first, it was unnoticed, but rottenness was taking place on the inside. Then, it was unusable. We had an event going on and we had to rope off that area. Then, it became unsafe. Although the caved in spot was roped off, the children were all playing around it and I was afraid they were going to fall and hurt themselves. Please don't get so busy that your own spiritual well-being is slowly rotting on the inside.

Always remember, I am praying for you.

"Fall Riding Tips"

"As long as the earth endures, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night will not cease." Gen 8:22 CSB

At the conclusion of the Lord's covenant with Noah In Genesis 8, the Lord promises that the cycles of seasons will continue as long as the earth endures. Never again will he destroy the earth by water.

In most parts of the country, the fall riding season is a time when we are transitioning from summer to winter. While many of us enjoy the break from the heat and humidity of summer, fall comes with its own set of challenges. For example, we will often experience wide temperature swings between morning and afternoon. And, if we ride enough in the fall, we will experience riding in some rain.

So, what does all that mean for us as riders? Several things come to mind. First, make sure you dress in layers. You will need to put on and take off layers, as the temperature varies, to remain comfortable. It is also important to have a good set of rain gear with you at all times. Second, you need to watch for leaves (in most of the country). Wet leaves are very slick, and dry leaves can cover potholes or gravel. Adjusting your speed is important in the fall. Third, plan for shorter days, to avoid riding after dark. Finally, be alert for wildlife. In most of the country, deer and other animals are very active around dawn and dusk during the fall of the year. Be sure to scan roadsides and wooded areas, remaining alert for wild animals.

Remember, I am here to serve you and your chapter members. If you are a Road Captain or a chapter member desiring more info on safe riding techniques, please reach out to me by email at rob.pochek@gmail.com to set up a time to chat.

Strength for the Road Ahead: This Month's Follow-Up Focus

With all the ministry events going on, please do not forget to follow up with those you share the Gospel with. Our responsibility does not end when they walk out from under the tent. It really just begins there.

If they are to fully understand the love of Christ, we must be that example. Show them you care. Follow up.

Thank you for all you do.

Outfitted for Outreach

It will soon be long sleeve weather. Please know that I am diligently searching for a vendor to make our shirts for a reasonable price.

Here are few poll questions to help me out.

- 1) If you could choose the color of long sleeve shirt you like the most, which color would it be?
- 2) How important is the lettering on the sleeves?

Please drop a comment to me which will help me to better stock the store with merchandise that is appealing to the majority of our ministry folks.

Let me know and I will try to stock the store accordingly. You can email me @ store@faithriders.com or go to the website (faithriders.com) and submit your entry through the Suggestion Box.
