Sunday School Snippets

As the Israelites journeyed in the wilderness, God provided manna for them to eat. However, the people complained and begged Moses for meat. In Numbers 11:4-17 we see the burden of leadership on Moses as he cried out to God in frustration, and we see that God provided additional leaders to share the burden with him.

As you read through Numbers 11:4-17, underscore each time Moses used the pronouns "I" or "me." When Moses made these statements, what was he revealing about his concern—and himself?
