Sunday School Snippets

As Moses prepared the Israelites to enter the promised land, he reminded them of their responsibility not just to hold on to their faith but to also pass it on to future generations. They were to keep God's Word at the forefront of their lives and teach it to their children daily. Remembering God's past faithfulness would help them to follow God's commands wholeheartedly.

As you read through Deuteronomy 6:1-9,20-25, underscore the promises God made to those who kept His commands.
