Skepticism abounds! It has been almost fifty-seven years since Neil Armstrong walked on the moon, yet there are still people who believe it was a hoax. Nearly every news story today will elicit skepticism concerning the facts. Doubt and skepticism are good if they force us to investigate the truth. They can be disastrous when they lead to denial of truth. Such was the case with Jesus. Skepticism led many to miss the life He offered.

Read Matthew 11:1-6, 16-24 in your Bible and the Personal Study Guide commentary for Session 10. In what ways were doubt and skepticism expressed? How did Jesus respond to the doubters and skeptics?
