Sunday School Snippets

Most of us often remember the details of the moments we received bad news. We probably remember where we were and what we were doing on September 11, 2001. Interestingly, sometimes we don't remember details when we receive good news. The joy of the news overshadows the specifics of how and when the news was received. This was not the case for the eyewitnesses to Jesus's resurrection. They could look back on the greatest news of all and remember vividly.

Read Matthew 28:1-10,16-20 and the commentary for Session 6 in your Personal Study Guide. Note the reactions of those who encountered the risen Savior.

Nursery Greeters Needed

We are in need of a few ladies to volunteer on a rotational basis to greet parents and help check babies in as they drop off their children with our Nursery Workers. This would be 10-15 minutes before morning worship service through the first 5 minutes or so, to welcome any guest we may have.

See KrisAnn Laseter for more information or to sign-up.
