Annual performance reviews can create both anticipation and anxiety. Many employees experience this year after year. In most cases, managers have a metric or checklist by which they evaluate your work performance. In some unfortunate cases, an employee has no clue what the criterion will be for the review. It is helpful to know the benchmarks we are striving for as we carry out our daily responsibilities.

Read Matthew 25:31-46 in your Bible. Summarize the difference between the faithful and the unfaithful. Use the Session 12 commentary in your Personal Study Guide to assist you.
