Sermon Series

Sunday School Snippets

None of us knows the precise time and date of our death. We do know, however, that death is a certainty for all. Consider this scenario: you know the exact day of your impending death, but no one else knows. You throw a dinner party for your family and friends, knowing this will be the last meal you will have with them. What emotions do you think you would experience if this scenario played out in reality?

Read Matthew 26:17-30 in your Bible and the Session 13 commentary in the Personal Study Guide. What emotions do you think the disciples felt at this “final meal” with Jesus, especially considering the statement about betrayal?
