Sunday School Snippets

Archaeologists have discovered that ancient civilizations erected statues and built monumental structures to celebrate and memorialize significant people and events. These memorials helped following generations understand their identity and recognize how they became who they are. In the Bible, God often instructed His people to erect memorials. It was so that they would never forget who God is, never forget they belonged to Him, and always remember they could trust Him in the present and for the future.

Compare the crossing of the Jordan in Joshua 3:14-17 to the crossing of the Red Sea in Exodus 14:15-31. What are the similarities? Use the commentary from Session 3 in the Personal Study Guide to assist you in finding these
