Sunday School Snippets

Many of us probably grew up with the expectation to "live up to" their family name, and this expectation determined how we made decisions as ambassadors of our family. Believers, in the same way, are called to represent and honor the name of Christ. From honoring government authorities to respecting those in our communities and beyond, believers are to exalt the name of Christ through their actions and words until Christ returns.

In our spiritual walks, we are often tempted to become lethargic and lose our alertness. In preparation for our discussion of Romans 13:1-14, consider this question: What steps can we take to prevent spiritual lethargy?
